

warholize Python JES Function

warholize Filter Example

Description

This function takes one image object. It creates a new canvas consisting of the image copied in an array that is 2 by 2 (e.g. two on top, and two on the bottom). Then it converts the image to black and white and finds the outlines. Finally, the black and white pixels are converted to a color scheme reflecting the iconic paintings of Andy Warhol.